Last week's meeting

Reporter: Mike Shearer

Rotarians gathered in the first snowy day of the winter. President Jack Neely rang the bell. Hugh Price led the singing of R-O-T-A-R-Y a Capella. Bob Fitzgerald led the invocation and Pledge of Allegiance. Hugh Price returned to lead "America the Beautiful."

Guests: Board member Chuck Moore introduced: guest of members Kevin Murphy, Chris Meyer and Jerry Nethers. Deb Tegtmeyer introduced student guests from Lakewood High School who showed up despite having a snow day.

Announcements:

- Board met last Friday and moved Jack into the president role following the death of President Erin Kennedy. The president-elect role will be shared between Jack and Chuck Moore. As usual, we are in need of another director. Ed Bohren, Tony Adams, Jack Neely will serve on the nominating committee. They will announce a slate of candidates in two weeks.
- Card passed around for Erin Kennedy's family.
- Rick Platt said the new Interact Club meeting was yesterday: 11 students attended. Picked 3 projects and accomplished one.
- We're collecting items for New Beginnings this month,
- Jerry Nethers reminded Rotarians the Par Excellence MLK breakfast is Jan. 18.
- Salvation Army sent a thank you letter for ringing bells.

100th Anniversary Committee Report: Eriech Horvath, co-chair for fund raising, reminded us the club goal is $500,000 and 100 percent member participation. We're currently at 83 percent for funds and 80 percent club participation with 44 members unpledged. Tax letters will be sent next week. He thanked everyone who has made pledges and payments. Gary Baker, co-chair of construction, shared the playground resurfacing company stepped out of the project. That's bad news as it's an expensive part of the project. Lowe's may donate some materials for pavilions. Things will be moving quickly this spring.

Awards: Presented to Rotarians who brought in new members. They included: Cheri Hottinger, Nelson McCray, Jon Spahr, Marcia Downes, Rob Montagnese, Mike Shearer (2 members), T.D. Griley (2 members). And Jim Francis was given a multiple Paul Harris Fellow (new pin).

3-minute-speech: John Paul Munhall thanked God first and offered a special thanks to everyone for warm welcome in joining Rotary. He is one of 10 kids in an Irish Catholic family in Worthington, Ohio. He owns his own company which buys and sells lands for gas drilling. He's married with four kids. They moved to Granville in search of a better community for his family. (See bio at right.)

3 About Me: Spent six weeks in Norway during 6th grade; met Richard Pryor in Barbados; blew out quad in volleyball training at Wittenberg. Answer: Penny Sitrler.

Sergeant-At-Arms: Pat Jeffries fined John Paul Munhall, Gary Baker (heat commercial); Tom Hall (picture in paper for Fiesta Bowl); anyone who watched Fiesta Bowl, all who received awards. He then auctioned OSU basketball tickets to Jeff Lawyer. He then told a funny story/joke about his favorite target, Jerry Nethers.

Program: Gary Baker introduced Anne Bowman, Adult Education Coordinator with C-TEC. She works to identify business needs for employee work skills and helps facilitate economic development. The goal is to ensure a job ready work force. She traveled to Germany to assist with that process when xperion decided to locate a facility in Heath. The process is called job profiling where she talks to employees about how they fulfill their jobs. She said the best part is watching the engagement of employees.

Thought of the week: "Talent is good, knowledge is important. Only hard work will deliver results."

Raffle: No winner, donated to Polio Plus.

New member profile: John Paul Munhall

The eighth of ten children from Worthington, Ohio, John attended Bishop Watterson High School and holds a degree in history and philosophy from Wheeling Jesuit University. He was an avid rugby player and coach.

Since moving to Granville in May 2015, he has joined St. Edward Catholic Church and the Licking County Chamber of Commerce. He has more than 12 years of experience in the oil and gas industry focusing on land and legal. He has executed leases, mineral acquisitions/divestitures, title abstraction, and managed and represented multiple $50 million mineral buying funds and land management duties. He has worked with some of the largest companies in the Appalachian Basin including Chevron, Sinclair Oil, Range Resources and Great Lakes Energy.

John is currently the president/owner of Igluplus, LLC, which provides oil and gas acquisitions and divestitures, contract negotiation and land services. Igluplus is named for his family: Ignatius (age 4), Lucy (5), and plus, to incorporate the then unborn children, Brendan (3), and now J. Kenneth (1); and his wife Christine, so he could remember who he is really working for every day.
