President-nominee Chuck Moore rang the bell and led the first part of the meeting. Tom Slater started us with singing R-O-T-A-R-Y with Steve Rath as his accompanist. Marcia Downes led the invocation and Pledge of Allegiance. Tom Slater led us in two songs, a belated December Birthday song and "How Much is that Doggy in the Window?" Unidentified Rotarians barked as instructed by the lyrics.

Visitors: Rotarians Margie Klein (Newark-Heath) and Craig Maxey, District Governor nominee. Guests included Deb Dingus (Rob Klinger) and Lee Heckman (Chris Meyer)

Student guests: Deb Tegtmeyer read biographies for Lakewood students' Zachary Green and Harsimran Kaur. Hugh Price introduced two Granville students, Ryan Reding and Micaela DeGenero.

New president: Chuck turned the meeting over to Bob McGaughy who had the honor of installing Jack Neely as the 100th president of the Newark Rotary Club following the death of Erin Kennedy earlier this month. Erin's husband, Scott Kennedy, was present and handed the gavel over to Jack. Erin's wish was for Jack to complete her year through June and still serve as president during the club's 100th year in 2016-17. Jack has decided Erin's chair will remain empty for the remainder of this Rotary year.

Announcements:

She has a bachelor's degree from Auburn University and Master of Arts in process from Savannah College of Art and Design. She is the director of development for The Works.

Program: Tom Marcelain introduced Kate Walker, a Newark native and 2005 Newark Catholic graduate, who works for Pilot Dogs in Columbus. She brought along a retired guide dog, Carla. Pilot Dogs trains guide dogs for those who are blind and visually impaired. Recipients spend three weeks being trained in Columbus, although puppies are raised at homes around Ohio first. The service is provided at no cost, with even travel costs covered. They are planning a capital campaign for a new on-site kennel. She also shared a story of how a guide dog once saved a blind man and his son from being hit by a car, although the dog did not survive.

Raffle: Eriech Horvath

Thought of the Week: "You think dogs will not be in heaven, I tell you they will be there long before any of us." - Robert Louis Stevenson

This week's program: Alan Wallace

Alan Wallace joined the Navy in August 1965 and worked as a hospital corpsman while serving in Vietnam. Alan worked in several jobs before being employed by the Department of Defense in 1981 as a firefighter at Rickenbacker Air Force Base. He spent 12 years in that position. In 1993, he was transferred to an Army post at Fort Myer in Arlington, Va. After 12 years, he retired in October 2003. In March 2005, he returned to Ohio and resides in Lithopolis. On the morning of September 11, 2001, Alan was in charge of the three-man crew assigned to the Heliport Fire Station located on the west side of the Pentagon. At 9:03 a.m., American Airlines Flight #77 crashed into the first floor of the west side of the Pentagon. All three of the firefighters were injured but immediately began to do whatever they could to help the injured and fight the fire.
