Last week's meeting

Reporter: Jerry Nethers

President Jack Neely rang the bell. Tom Slater and Peter Larson got us going with our traditional R-O-T-A-R-Y followed by First Lady Nancy Neely leading us in the Prayer and Pledge. Tom then led us in "All Hail to Rotary" with Peter doing his usual great stuff. We were so good we sang it twice.

Guests were introduced by Chuck Moore. Sue Vousdon was a visiting Rotarian from Shelby, Ohio. Rotarians and Guests were: John Carlson (Victor James); Denny Hesselgesser (Larry Palur); Jack Stickle (Tanner Ernest); Nancy Anderson (Brian Haught); Paul Thompson (Sally Heckman, Steve Fleetwood, Sue Vousdon and Candis Burchard), and Lori Hubble (Austin Bishoff);

- DON'T FORGET next week's meeting is at Rotary Park

Welcome to Brendan Underwood, our newest Rotarian sponsored by Rob Klinger and Steve Layman.

Sergeant-At-Arms: Bill Cost did a fine job filling in for Pat Jeffries. He started his comments by giving us the good news that Pat was not here. (That will cost Mr. Cost.) Others mentioned (and fined) were Brendan Underwood, Tom Cummiskey, Doug Ute, Barb Quackenbush, Dave Evans, John Carlson, Hugh Price, and long time absentees Bill Mitchell and Bob Frame. Marcia Downes gave an impromptu three minute speech encouraging us to get on YouTube and look up "The Spirit of Newark."

Program: Tom Cummiskey introduced Josh Saltar, FBI Special Agent dealing with cybercrime. The world of cybercrime is growing, and the FBI is doing all it can to stop it. Their priorities are identify, pursue and defeat. The motivation for cybercrime can be everything from money to terrorism and warfare. Most crimes against individuals result from allowing third party intrusions from emails opened by us. Business email compromises cost $800 million over the past two years. His most compelling advice for us is to pay attention to unsolicited emails and to those emails requiring the sending of money. It was a pretty technical and sobering presentation.

RI International council approves changes

Rotary.org

The 2016 Council on Legislation may well be remembered as one of the most progressive in Rotary history. Not only did this Council grant clubs more freedom in determining their meeting schedule and membership, it also approved an increase in per capita dues of $4 a year for three years. The increase will be used to enhance Rotary's website, improve online tools, and add programs and services to help clubs increase membership. The Council is an essential element of Rotary's governance. Every three years, members from around the world gather in Chicago to consider proposed changes. The tone for this year was set early, when the RI Board put forth two proposals that increase flexibility. The first measure allows clubs to decide to vary their meeting times, whether to meet online or in person, and when to cancel a meeting, as long as they meet at least twice a month. The second allows clubs flexibility in choosing their membership rules and requirements. Both passed.

Rotary award nominations due May 24

Awards for Rotarian of the Year, Bravo Award (Rotarian in community support) and Service Above Self (non Rotarian) will be presented June 21. Nominating forms are available. Submit to Jim Cooper or Jerry Besanceney. E-mail: gebesanceney3@hotmail.com

New member profile: Tristan Ruml

Tristan Ruml grew up in Licking County and attended Granville Christian Academy. After high school, he attended Grove City College in Western Pennsylvania where he studied International Business focusing on Chinese and marketing. During college, he had the opportunity to study abroad in France and was awarded a scholarship to volunteer with Burmese refugees displaced in Northern Thailand. After graduating, he worked at RevLocal as a Client Strategist, Paid Advertising Specialist, and Quality Assurance Manager. In early 2015, he learned about a family property in the Czech Republic that was in poor financial state. He left his position at RevLocal to live in the Czech Republic for the summer to lay the groundwork to make the property profitable. To have flexibility or work in order to travel regularly to the Czech Republic, he started a marketing agency and bought part ownership and handles the marketing for a veteran owned, e-commerce military apparel company.
