This week's meeting

Reporter: Jerry Nethers

Newly minted President Erin Kennedy called the Newark Rotary Club to order promptly at 12:05 p.m. After Tom Slater and Peter Larson got us going with singing R-O-T-A-R-Y, Dennis Hesselgesser led us in the prayer and Pledge of Allegiance.

Jack Neely introduced our guests: Greg Stutesman, guest of his dad Don Stutesman; Sharon Fuller, guest of husband Ron Fuller; and our exchange student Antoine who is returning to Brussels. Antoine thanked the club for a great experience.

Announcements

- Jim Withers was meeting with the Auction committee right after today's meeting.
- Jack Neely reminded us of our Third Thursday get-together to be held at Bangkok City to support our business friends in the Buckeye Lake area.
- Tony Adams issued a "last call" for the trip to Scioto Downs.

Sergeant-At-Arms: Pat Jeffries thanked LMH for their help with Camp Enterprise and all they do for our community. Fines were leveled on Tony Adams for his Thespian skills, Penny Sitler, Judges Michael Higgins and Tom Marcelain, Marcia Downes for having a birthday and Duke Frost and all who participated in the 4th of July Parade.

Program: Bob McGaughy introduced Erin Kennedy, our club's 100th President. Born in Detroit, Erin soon moved to Newark where she graduated from NHS and then as a journalism major at OSU. Her career includes a stint as reporter for the Columbus Dispatch and Citizen Journal, News Director for WHTH-WNKO, and worked in public relations at LMH. Her career in the health care industry with Newark Health Care and Kindred Care took her to Reynoldsburg and Logan before her return to Newark in 2007. Her awards are too numerous to mention, so we won't. Erin (who is also a citizen of Ireland) is married to fellow Rotarian Scott Kennedy and they have two sons, Brenden and Sean.

Erin and Scott attended the Rotary International convention in Sao Paulo, Brazil, where they met many of T. D. Griley's friends and hung out with many Past Presidents of Rotary International. Her slides of the convention even included a "Brazilian Elvis." The many international projects being implemented throughout the world highlighted at the convention included our effort to eradicate polio, clean water, work with deaf and disabled and women's rights. Our current RI President's motto for this year is "Be a gift to the world".

Erin has great plans for the Newark Club this year. Fun and Fellowship, Financial Support and Membership Growth are the three main categories. We can look forward to more membership surveys to find out what makes people join Rotary and why some don't stay. We'll also hear regular biographies of our current members.

New president Erin Kennedy speaks to the club for the traditional opening of the new Rotary year.

On the financial front Erin encouraged us to support both the international and local Rotary Foundations and especially our upcoming Auction, which is our major fundraiser to implement our many worthwhile projects. The goal for this year's Auction is $50,000.

Worldwide, Rotary has experienced a 12% decline in membership the past 12 years. Our goal is to reach 231, up from our current number of 227.

Erin left us with a reminder to inspire our kids and grandkids with our good work and thanked Ed Bohren and the board for all their help. She also made us feel good by having a very efficient meeting and getting us out early for our golf games.

Reflecting Rotary International's goal, Erin ordered us to "Be a Gift to the World".

This week's speaker: Jeff Garshon

A true healthcare marketing visionary, Jeff Garshon is passionate about precision medicine and empowering healthcare providers with new diagnostic tools that improve patient treatment and outcomes. As Chromocare's president, Jeff defines the company's overall strategy, vision and position in the pharmacogenetics industry. In addition to his work at Chromocare, Jeff is co-founder and Vice President of Business Development at Brandperx, managing a rapidly expanding network of over 250,000 healthcare providers nationwide. He is a graduate of Ryerson University in Toronto, Canada, with 20 years of experience in marketing for healthcare and consumer brands.
