This week's meeting

Reporter: Jon Bowers

President Erin Kennedy brought the meeting to order at 12:10 p.m. and Tom Slater started us singing R-O-T-A-R-Y. Molly Ingold led us in the invocation and pledge. We honored August birthdays. Accompanied by Joyce Slater, Tom led the group singing "A Helping Hand."

President-elect Jack Neely followed by introducing Megan Evans, a guest of Patty Whisman.

President Erin then read a Resolution of Respect in honor of the late John Weaver and we shared a moment of silence. A private memorial service is planned. John's obituary can be read here.

Announcements:

- Auction Meeting was to be held at President Erin's house on Wednesday (8/26) evening.
- The Newark-Heath Golf Outing will be Sept. 4.
- Fred Ernest presented information about the Bluegrass Festival.
- Members were reminded of the August service project of collecting school supplies for Newark City Schools.

3 about me: 1. Sat next to Lee Corso of ESPN, on one leg of a trip to Florida and next to Don Shula on the way home of the same trip. 2. This person was born on Valentine's Day, right after the parents had celebrated with a dinner date at Natoma. 3. And spent New Year's Eve 1986 in Trafalgar's Square, London, England. This is Ashley Wade.

Jon Veley gave his 3-minute talk. Jon is originally from central Ohio and attend Ohio University for undergraduate studies and the Ohio State University for Law School. His law practice is in Newark and he recently moved offices. Jon's claim to fame is that he has written three books on mechanical pens. He is a world-renowned mechanical pen hobbyist.

Sergeant-at-Arms: Pat Jeffries reminded us that the auction of OSU Football tickets will be coming soon, so we should be budgeting for it. Fund raising started with Fred Ernest for his advertising the Bluegrass Festival, and Rod Yost for the recent stock market performance. All August birthdays were asked to assist with a dollar. Pat also shared a gift that the Gary Baker recently bid on, but forgot to pick up....a charming bag. And finally, Pat mentioned recent news Cherri Hottinger, Rob Montagnese, and Tony Adams.

Program: Rick Platt then introduced our speaker, Adam Rhodes of Homestead Brewery. The Homestead Brewery was established about four years ago when the micro-brewery market was much less developed both in Ohio and in the US. At the time, there were only seven micro-breweries in Ohio; now there are roughly 25, with more being planned.

Licking County is currently home to three micro-breweries, each with distinct specialties: Homestead Brewery, Buckeye Lake Brewery and Granville Brewery. Adam's brewery focuses on making a beer that appeals to a broad range of consumers and is based upon classic, German techniques.

The Brewery employs eight staff, with the most recent person focusing on marketing, to help with promoting the sales of their beer in the Cleveland area, and has gone through several expansions to add fermentation, bottling and distribution capacity. Adam believes that there is still room in the microbrewery market for Homestead to grow in Ohio.

With federal regulations moderating interstate trade, Adam stated that he thought that Homestead would continue to focus on the Ohio market. They also have sufficient facilities to continue to grow capacity.

Some of the challenges facing micro-breweries in Ohio are the out-of-state microbrewers who want to enter the Ohio market, other Ohio-based micro-brewers and Anheuser-Busch/Coors, large brewers that are looking to enter the micro-brewery market. Securing funding is the final challenge that affects all brewers.

Adam was kind enough to bring samples of some of the more popular brews that Homestead sells. The tap room is open every day, offering visitors the opportunity to sample many of the year-round as well as seasonal brews. An expanded patio was also recently added. Hours are Tuesday – Saturday, 3 p.m. – 10 p.m. and Sunday, 3 p.m.– 8 p.m.

Drawing: Don Hill won the drawing and requested that the funds go to Polio Plus.

Thought of the week: "I am a firm believer in the people. If given the truth, they can be depended upon to meet any national crisis. The great point is to bring them the real facts, and beer." -- Abraham Lincoln
