Sergeant-At-Arms: Pat Jeffries made the club some money by fining the following individuals: Jerry Nethers, Glenn Abel, Barbara Quackenbush, Cheri Hottinger, Fred Ernest, Veronica Link, Jeff Hall, Doug Ute, Dan DeLawder (who fined Pat Jeffries), Jennifer Utrevis, Dave Shull, Rob Montagnese and Jay Hottinger. Today's Program: Dan Evers introduced Secretary of State Jon Husted.

Mr. Husted reviewed the three state issues which will appear on the November ballot. State Issue 1 addresses how redistricting for political boundaries will be handled. State Issue 2 would end the ability for a group to put themselves on the ballot for the purpose of creating any type of monopoly in Ohio. And State Issue 3 would grant a monopoly for the production and sale of marijuana for recreational and medicinal purposes around the State of Ohio. Mr. Husted also talked about the duties of his office, including overseeing the elections. He said their goal is to "make it easy to vote and hard to cheat." He also talked about his priority of making sure military personnel are able to vote from wherever they are serving around the world. He asked everyone to care and make sure they vote in all elections.

Thought for the week: "Ohio claims they are due a president as they haven't had one since Taft. Look at the United States, they have not had one since Lincoln." - Will Rogers

Raffle winner: Ed Bohren was the lucky winner.

September RI Presidential message

K.R. "Ravi" Ravindran, President 2015-16

There was once a strong young man who was offered a job as a woodcutter. He set about his task with energy: The first week, he turned 18 trees into firewood. The second week, he worked just as hard, but was surprised to find he had chopped only 11 trees. The third week, despite working nonstop from morning till night, the number was six, and he went despairingly to the foreman to offer his resignation. "I am losing strength. I can't cut as many trees as I once could."

The foreman looked at the young man, who seemed to him in fine health. "Have you thought of sharpening your ax?" he asked.

"Sharpen my ax? Who has time to sharpen an ax?" the young man asked indignantly. "I have been too busy chopping wood!"

When we aren't making the kind of progress we feel we should be making, the natural response is to redouble our efforts. Sometimes, though, the better response is not to work harder, but to work smarter. Look at your tools. Analyze your processes. Are you directing your resources in the most effective ways? Or are you pouring all your strength into chopping wood with a dull ax?

For the last 20 years, we have relentlessly beaten the drum of membership in Rotary. We set goals and launch campaigns, all focused on bringing in more and more members. And yet, our overall numbers remain the same.

It's time to sharpen our tools. Instead of focusing on the question, "How can we bring more members into Rotary?" we should be asking, "How can we add more value to Rotary membership, so that more will join and fewer will leave?"

One way we are doing that is with the new Rotary Global Rewards program, which launched in July. This innovative program allows Rotarians to connect with, and receive discounts and concessions from, businesses and service providers around the world. Much more than another loyalty program, Rotary Global Rewards is a new way to benefit from being a Rotarian, and being part of the Rotary network.

This week's program: Denny Hollern

The presentation offers awareness and techniques on how to survive an Active Shooter/Aggressor situation. It emphasizes that not all situations involve a gunman and how to use statistical information along with the current situation at hand to formulate a survival plan. It further stresses preplanning and trained survival mindset so as not to become a victim.

Denny Hollern is a police staff lieutenant for The Ohio State University Police Division and currently assigned to OSU-Newark and COTC. He has 35 years of experience in law enforcement as a police officer, 20 years as a detective investigating violent crime and 25 years as a SWAT team member and commander. Lt. Hollern has responded to four active shooter incidents in his career. He was recognized in 2009 by OSU with the Valor Award due to his actions in an active shooter incident.
