Program: President Chuck Moore introduced himself.

Chuck began with a "Rotary Quiz," in which he gave out Four-Way Test coins to those who answered correctly.

President Chuck then showed a slideshow of pictures he took at the recent Rotary international convention in Atlanta. He was blown away by the event and shared that he plans to now live truly as a Rotarian. He also went over some of his major goals during his presidency, including:

- Get impeached (joke).
- Raise dues to $700 a year.
- Have excellent programs, which help to drive membership.
- Keep 3rd Thursday's. Monthly volunteer opportunities.
- Share club pictures more frequently.
- Rotary moments - come up with a number and send out to somebody random and have them ask what their number is for.
- Rotary foundation - increase Paul Harris members & 125 club.
- Each member give at least $26.50 to the Rotary International Club.
- PolioPlus - bring $2 or $5 to next meeting to win some items.
- Raffle is changed to a 1/3 of the pot – 1/3 to weekly winner, Polio will get 1/3, and 1/3 goes into a lump sum pot.
- Have "FUN".
- Perhaps his most impactful statement/goal was to challenge all of us to not just be members of Rotary, but to be Rotarians.

As we begin a new Rotary year, we look forward to the leadership from our new President, Chuck Moore, as well as the new group of Officers & Directors.

We also say goodbye, and a very big THANK YOU to the incredible leadership and service provided by our Immediate Past-President, Jack Neely! You truly exemplified the Rotary motto, "Service Above Self" and we appreciate your time and commitment to our Rotary Club and to our community.
