How many charter members were there?

Rotarians Taken Back 55 Years

Thanks to digital archives of The Advocate, there's reason to believe there were as many as 59 charter members, based on articles in 1916 and 1961. Finally, a list in the Newark Rotary archives balances out the rest from Alban to Wyeth.

3 About Me: Steve Ehret read the Rotogram from the Dec. 11, 1956, meeting, which was a 40th year celebration of Rotary at Moundbuilders Country Club. Rev. Tom Simpson was the editor at that time.

Program: Rick Platt then talked about all the different projects that have happened at the Heath campus over the years. There is still active military on the campus in the Horton Building. He also recognized some of the local companies that have been involved in the different construction projects. He then introduced the speaker, Mike Murasky, the acting center director.

Mr. Murasky has been at the Aerospace Center for 32 years. The Heath facility is the largest Boeing facility in Ohio, employing 450 people and contributes $12 billion to the Ohio economy. Boeing, as a company, has 160,000 employees spread out in 65 different countries.

Mr. Murasky recognized his leadership team and thanked them for a job well done. He then discussed all the different technologies used at Boeing, and the Heath location specifically, discussing the importance of the Heath being the hub of the guidance repair system. He also talked about the importance of the number of volunteers and donations Boeing gives back to the community. Lastly, he was very proud of their safety record, going 1,300 days without a lost time accident.

District Governor Steve Sandbo

Steve D. Sandbo has been a member of the Upper Arlington Rotary Club since 2000. His understanding of what being a Rotarian means started at an early age as his father was a charter member of the Upper Arlington Rotary Club in 1972 and club President in 1990. Steve has served on the Upper Arlington Rotary board of Directors twice, serving as Secretary, Vice President and President of the club in 2012. In 2010, Steve received Rotarian of The Year Award. During his involvement with the Upper Arlington Rotary Club he has been Chairman of the Membership, World Service, Fundraising and Special Projects committees.

As Chairman of the World Service Committee, Steve was instrumental in establishing The Upper Arlington World Service International project in Guatemala resulting in the opening of a Rotary middle school in the remote village of Tierra Linda, the completion of several water projects and the opening of a Rotary trade school in Panajachel, Guatemala. Steve and his wife Jill have traveled 13 times to the Western Highlands region in Guatemala, leading Rotarians on mission trips since 2010. Always up for a Rotary adventure, in October 2013, Steve along with several other Rotary club members, navigated 2,400 miles along historic Route 66 in his restored Pontiac GTO adorned with Rotary logos to increase support and generated over $20,000 in donations for the Rotary Foundation.

Steve has served as Co-Chair for District 6690 Membership Committee, been active in developing the new Rotary Membership Engagement Touch Point Program and assisted other District 6690 clubs in developing their own World Service projects and Fundraisers.

Steve graduated from Wittenberg University with majors in business and communications. At Wittenberg he played four years of collegiate tennis and has served on the Wittenberg University School of Alumni Business Advisory Board. Steve has been active in the Big Brothers Big Sisters organization, mentoring three little brothers.

Steve is the President of Sanco LCC, an organizational management consulting firm. Prior to that, Steve served as President of The Sandbo Company and later Senior Vice President and Board member of Acosta Sales Company. Steve has sat on advisory boards for companies including Tropicana, Land O Lakes, Cadbury, The Solo Cup Company and Chinnet serving as Board Chair in several instances.

Steve and his wife Jill have been married 32 years. Jill is the Director of Human Resources for Premier Athletic Club and also a Rotarian. Together they have raised 3 wonderful children and in addition to always having collies have one grandson and expecting 2 more grandchildren this year. Jill and Steve enjoy exploring the Southwest, fly fishing, adventuresome family vacations and traveling in their restored Pontiac Firebird and GTO.
